
Cahill Represents Private Debt Funds in $330 Million Credit Facility for a Software Technology Company

Date: 08/14/23

Cahill represented a group of private debt funds in connection with the credit facilities for a software technology company that is a portfolio Company of a large private equity firm. Proceeds from the credit facility were used for dividends, a refinancing of the Borrower's existing credit facilities and general corporate purposes.

Attorneys

- Christopher Bevan
- Josiah M. Slotnick
- Michael Ma
- Xin Zhou (Richard) Pan
- Steven A. Wasserfall
- Qing (Annie) Yuan