
Cahill Ranked Among Leading Investigations Law Firms in GIR 100 2024

Date: 11/19/24

Global Investigations Review (GIR) has once again named Cahill among the world's leading investigations law firms in the newest edition of the GIR 100.

GIR noted that "those who have worked with Cahill's white-collar lawyers describe them as very respected by prosecutors. Professionals at the firm are also known for their vast experience and spot-on judgement."

The publication recognizes leading firms for corporate investigations, highlighting the top cross-border investigations practices. GIR editors selected the 100 firms for their ability to carry out sophisticated, cross-border government-led and internal investigations.
